UNIVERSITY STATUS ON TRUSTEE AGENDA

The college's application to be designated as a university is on the agenda for the May 23 meeting of the CSU Board of Trustees.

The agenda, released this week, states: "California State College, San Bernardino now meets the specified criteria and is requesting that the Board of Trustees and the California Postsecondary Education Commission affirm this fact so that the campus may be renamed California State University, San Bernardino." The trustee Educational Policy Committee will review the application at its morning meeting and will report to the full board in the afternoon.

GRADUATES MAY ORDER COMMENCEMENT GOWNS NOW

Students who will participate in commencement exercises Saturday evening, June 16 may order their caps and gowns from the Bookstore beginning Monday.

After securing from the Activities Office, SS 123, a confirmation form which establishes their eligibility to participate, students must pay a $4 marching fee at the Bursar's window, AD 111. Both the form and the fee receipt must be taken to the Bookstore to rent the regalia. Students may order gowns through June 8.

Rental fees for students are: Bachelor--cap, gown and tassle, $13.35; Master--cap, gown, tassle and hood, $25.85; Master--cap, gown and tassle, $14.20; Master--hood, $11.70; Tassle. $2.50.

The college's 18th commencement exercises will begin at 6 p.m. on the lawn south of the Gymnasium. The event was changed from the former 9 a.m. hour to avoid the morning heat. Dr. Robert Middlekauf, director of the Huntington Library in Pasadena, will give the address.

SUMMER SCHOOL EXPANDS TO THREE SESSIONS

An expanded summer session, with three time modules to allow students more flexibility and more units, will be offered here this year. Bulletins announcing the summer program are now available from the Office of Continuing Education, PL 500 South and the Public Affairs Office, AD 117. The first session, of five weeks, will run from June 20 to July 26. Session II opens July 30 and concludes Aug. 20. Session III also begins July 30 but it continues until Aug. 31. Students may earn a maximum of 20 units credit during summer.

Fees for summer session are $38 per unit plus parking and student fees of $12.50. Most summer courses carry five units of credit, although education, computer science and theater arts have classes with lesser units.

Nearly 100 courses in 20 disciplines will be offered during Session I. Eight classes are listed for Session II and 14 for Session III. Continuing education classes will also be offered on campus and in Hesperia, Idyllwild, Palm Desert, Redlands, Riverside.

DR. CAROL GOSS IS NEW CHAIR OF FACULTY SENATE

Dr. Carol Goss (Political Science) is the new chair of the Faculty Senate. Elected Tuesday, she succeeds Dr. Joe Bas (Spanish). The new vice chair is Dr. Susan Meisenhelder (English). Serving as secretary is Dr. Frances Coles (Criminal Justice), who was previously vice chair. Dr. Goss was chair of the Senate in 1975-76 and secretary 1973-74. She is currently one of the college's representatives to the Statewide Academic Senate.

FACULTY MEMBER WINS STATE AWARD

Dr. David Null (Health Science and Human Ecology) last week received a Governor's State Employee Safety Award for 1983. He was recognized for providing the college with professional assistance in the health and safety field which resulted in improved work practices for a safer work environment. His services have ranged from environmental monitoring to interpretation of state and federal safety regulations.

Dr. Null joined the Cal State faculty in 1977 as assistant professor of health science after serving as an industrial hygienist with Aerojet Nuclear Co. and EG&G Idaho, Inc. His field of expertise ranges from industrial hygiene to toxicology and nuclear biology. He earned his B.A. in zoology from UC, Riverside; his M.A. in biological sciences from Cal State, Hayward; and his Ph.D. in environmental health science from UC Berkeley.

UCR ECONOMIST TO SPEAK

Dr. Roger L. Ransom, professor of history and economics at UC Riverside, will speak at noon Wednesday in PL 500. His topic is "Economic Security in the 20th Century: Some Thoughts on the Evidence." The program is coordinated by Dr. Mayo Toruno (Economics).

'BEACH PARTY' IS SPRINGFEST THEME

A day at the beach will be the theme of the Springfest held Thursday on the sidewalk between the Creative Arts Building and Student Union. Featured will be the jazz group "August" and the Christian rock group the "Darrell Mansfield Band." Club activities planned include an art and handicrafts sale, a dunk tank and various luau-type food sales. Faculty and staff are invited to leave their brown bags at home and join the student clubs for lunch, said Clare Sharafinski, activities advisor.

AFS SEEKS HOUSING

The American Field Service Organization in San Bernardino is seeking host families to house AFS students for the 1984-85 academic year. Families in the Cajon or San Geronio High School areas may call Barbara Plunk, 882-6354; Sue Orrock, 885-3278; or Richard Bennecke, Ext. 7614.

The California State College, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published Fridays by the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, extension 7558. Items for publication should be received in writing by noon Tuesday.

NATIONALLY KNOWN NURSING EDUCATOR HERE TUESDAY

Dr. Anne Davis, nationally and internationally recognized nursing educator, will deliver the third annual Pfau Distinguished Lecture in Nursing at 7 p.m., Tuesday in the Recital Hall. Dr. Davis, who has extensive publications to her credit, will speak on "The Future Responsibility of Nursing: An Ethical Perspective." A professor of nursing at UC San Francisco, she has been a visiting lecturer at the University of Ibadan in Nigeria, the University of Edinburg, Scotland and the College of Nursing in Hyderabad, India.

Dr. Davis earned her B.S. degree in nursing from Emory University, her M.S. in psychiatric nursing from Boston University and her Ph.D. from UC Berkeley. She received the Joseph P. Kennedy Foundation Fellowship in 1976, a second Fellowship in 1980 and was elected as a Fellow in the American Academy of Nursing in 1977.

Tickets are $10. Nurses who wish to earn two-tenths unit of continuing education units may do so for an additional $14, said Dr. Del LaVerne Watson (Nursing), who is coordinating the event.

INSANITY PLEA IS TOPIC OF LECTURE THURSDAY

Lawyer-psychoanalyst William J. Winslade, author of "The Insanity Plea" will speak at 5 p.m., Thursday in the Recital Hall. Dr. Winslade will discuss the uses and misuses of the insanity plea.

An adjunct professor of law and adjunct associate professor of psychiatry at UCLA, Dr. Winslade is director of the Legal/Ethical Consultation Service in the UCLA Neuro-Psychiatric Institute and the UCLA-NPI Forensic Psychiatry Service. He will also address a graduate seminar taught by Dr. Marsha Liss (Psychology), who arranged the visit.

TV FIGURES TO BE AT MINORITY AND MEDIA SEMINAR

Los Angeles television broadcasters Maclovio Perez of Channel 2 and Liz Gonzales of Channel 11 will participate in a day-long conference on minority access to the media here May 19. The activity is designed to give representatives of non-profit, community-based organizations information on ways to develop public relations programs and secure access to the media. Most activities will be in the Physical Sciences Building. There will also be career development seminars.

Area media representatives participating include Cheryl and Hardy Brown, editor and publisher of the Black Voice; Alfredo Gonzales, broadcaster, KVCR-TV and KCAL radio; and Gloria Macias Harrison, publisher of El Chicano.

Preregistration fees are $10. After May 15 and at the door they are $12. Fees include materials and luncheon. The conference has been arranged by George Martinez (Upward Bound). A limited number of stipends for students are available. Additional information may be obtained by calling Upward Bound at Ext. 7209.

WOMEN ARTISTS LECTURE TO BE HELD THURSDAY

Dr. Wendy Slatkin, a member of the art history faculty at UC Riverside, will present a free lecture on women artists in history at noon Thursday in VA 110. Her presentation, rescheduled from Women's History Week, will survey individuals included in her book, "Women Artists in History, From Antiquity to the Twentieth Century."

CAL STATE ASSOCIATES PLAN SPRING LUAU

A spring luau Saturday evening, May 19 will conclude the year for the Cal State Associates, a college support group composed of faculty, staff and spouses.

The luau, open to everyone interested in the Associates, will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Beverly and Alan Dyer, 19256 Arbeth St., Rialto. Reservations must be made with Mrs. Dyer, Ext. 7516, or 875-6397 after 5 p.m. Entertainment and election of officers for 1984-85 will follow the evening meal, a planned potluck.

During the past year the Associates have participated in a variety of activities to aid college programs and to help members of the campus community become better acquainted. The Children's Art Fair and the puppet show at the Open House are traditional events for the Associates. Other social events included an Egyptian dinner, the Arts Buffet Cabarets, the Christmas progressive dinner and an Octoberfest. The Christmas greeting scholarship fund and several garage sales raised funds for students. The latest sale, held at the home of Dr. Catherine Gannon, netted $465 for the student emergency loan fund.

WORKSHOP FOR WOMEN SPONSORED BY SAA

A workshop for women interested in furthering their education and pursuing careers while staying mentally healthy will be held Friday morning, May 18 under the sponsorship of Student Affirmative Action.

Dr. Lynda Warren (Psychology) is coordinating the program, which begins at 8:30 a.m. in the Lower Commons. Workshops will address topics such as the fear of success/failure, using other people as resources and role models for Hispanic children. The workshop is free and prior registration is not required.

'MERCHANT OF VENICE' OPENS MAY 24 IN THEATRE

Tickets will go on sale Monday in the Theatre Arts Office for the spring quarter production of William Shakespeare's "The Merchant of Venice."

The play, directed by Dr. William Slout, opens Thursday, May 24 and will continue May 25, 26, 30, 31 and June 1 and 2. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. Tickets are $4.25 general and $2 student and senior citizen.

Cast members include freshmen James Seilsopour and Jacqueline Rosales; sophomores Mark Duncan and Clayton Martinez; juniors Keith Hearon, Lonnie La Pointe, Bruce Mullenix and David Pavao; seniors Scott Edwards, Bill Greeley, Nancy Learmonth, Mary Manthis, Mark Peters, Gary Roberson, Shannon Rubin, Vicki Smith and Amber Talvi; and graduate student Michael Galyon. All are theatre arts majors except Edwards, math; Pavao, marketing; and Galyon, undeclared.

CSU WILL NOT PARTICIPATE IN EARLY RETIREMENT PROGRAM

The California State University system will not participate in the new two-year early retirement program authorized for state employees by Gov. Deukmejian last March.

The CSU is still paying the approximate $17 million cost of the last retirement program, in which more than 1400 employees participated, according to Chancellor W. Ann Reynolds. The CSU was also uncertain whether it could comply with the retirement time period, a 60-day "window" beginning March 29.

OPEN ENROLLMENT IS NOW FOR HEALTH PLANS

The open enrollment period for voluntary vision and enhanced dental coverage for supervisory and management personnel continues through May 25. Representatives from Safeguard Health Plans, Inc., which provides the vision plan, will be in the Lower Commons Tuesday afternoon, May 29 to explain the program. Units 3 and 4 employees not presently covered may attend the meetings and enroll in the vision care at this time. Under this plan, employees pay the monthly premiums and must use the doctors on the approved list.

California Dental Service will provide the enhanced dental care for supervisory and management employees, who must pay the added premium. Units 3 and 4 already have this coverage. More information about both plans is available from Pat Diaz, benefits clerk in Personnel, Ext. 7205.

MODEL UNITED NATIONS IN SESSION WEDNESDAY

The seventh annual Model United Nations of San Bernardino will be in session all day Wednesday, May 16. About 150 students from seven high schools within the service area are expected to participate, said Dr. Brij Khare, faculty advisor to the annual function. The General Assembly will meet in the SUMP, with committee meetings elsewhere in the Student Union and in the Lower Commons.

Six committees will be assigned a topic for discussion and debate. Committee members will then prepare resolutions to be voted on by the General Assembly that afternoon.

The activity, which is recognized by the United Nations Assn. of the United States, is sponsored by the Political Science Department, Student Services and Academic Programs. This is the first time the event has been held on campus.

BELLY DANCING MAY 16 AND 17

Belly dancing performances will be presented at 8:15 p.m., Wednesday in the Student Union Pub and at 8:30 p.m., Thursday in the Lower Commons. The free presentation of Middle Eastern folk dancing is sponsored by Housing.
